

New Podcast Series: Human Rights and Dementia in a Post-COVID-19 World

EPISODE 1 - Absolutely Yes! Human Rights and Dementia

Release Date: May 25th, 2020

- Mario Gregorio, B.C. Advocate Living with Dementia
- Laura Tamblyn Watts, CEO, CanAge
- Margaret Gillis, President, International Longevity Centre Canada

EPISODE 2 - Get Real! - Dementia, Gender, Age

Release Date: June 8th, 2020

- Christine Thelker, B.C. Advocate Living with Dementia
- Jane Barratt, International Federation on Ageing
- Dr. Deb O'Connor, Centre on Personhood in Dementia, UBC

EPISODE 3 - Include Us! A Call to Action

Release Date: June 22nd, 2020

- Stefanie Freel, World Health Organization
- Kate Swaffer, Dementia Alliance International

EPISODE 4 - Town Hall - An Invitation to All Listeners

Event Date: June 29th, 2020 Start Time: 2 PM EDT

- Facilitation by: Jillian McConnell, brainXchange and Mary Beth Wighton, Dementia Advocacy Canada
- A call-in episode about putting words into action

Register Now:

<https://dementiadialoguetownhall.eventbrite.ca>

Download at dementiadialogue.ca/podcasts or wherever you access your podcasts

For more information email: dementia.dialogue@lakeheadu.ca

